THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE OF EUROPEAN LEGAL STUDIES
CELS 25th Anniversary Conference
15 September 2017

Programme

09:45 – 10:15  Registration and Coffee

10:20 – 10:30  Welcome and Introduction
               Dr Albertina Albors-Llorens
               Assistant Director of CELS and St John’s College, University of Cambridge

10:30 – 11:00  “Gearing Up for a CELS”
               Professor Bill Cornish
               Magdalene College, University of Cambridge

11:00 – 12:30  “CELS at the end of the European Communities' Golden Age”
               Professor Sir Alan Dashwood
               Sidney Sussex College, University of Cambridge

12:30 – 13:30  Lunch

13:30 – 15:00  “The Changing Character of Comparative Law”
               Professor John Bell
               Pembroke College, University of Cambridge

               “Europe and Criminal Justice”
               Professor John Spencer
               Selwyn and Murray Edward Colleges, University of Cambridge

15:00 – 15:30  Tea and Coffee

15:30 – 17:00  “Cloudy with a Chance of Albondigas”
               Professor Catherine Barnard
               Trinity College, University of Cambridge

               “Brexit and the Autonomy of EU law: Causes and Consequences”
               Professor Kenneth Armstrong
               Director of CELS and Sidney Sussex College

17:00 – 17:10  Concluding Remarks
               Professor Richard Fentiman
               Chair of the Faculty of Law and Queens’ College, University of Cambridge