

The Single Market at 25:
the Changing Political Economy of Europe

Network on Britain in Europe (NEWBIE) Conference

29-30th January 2016
Cambridge, UK

Programme

Location: B16, Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge

Friday 29th January

3.00-3.30

Arrival and Coffee

3.30-4.30

Panel A: Governance and Institutions Since 1992

Reconfiguring Markets: The Single Market at Twenty-Five (Michelle Egan, American University, Washington)

After 'Positive' and 'Negative' Integration: the Governance of the SEM (Kenneth Armstrong, University of Cambridge)

Discussant:

Simon Bulmer, Sheffield

5.00-5.45

Keynote Remarks

Arlene McCarthy OBE, MEP (1994-2014) and former Chair of the EP Committee on the Internal Market and Consumer Protection

Reception and Dinner

* * *

Saturday 30th January

9.30-11.15

Panel B: Changing Political Economy of the Single Market

The Political Economy of the Single Market in Financial Services (Lucia Quaglia, York)

Competition and the Single Market – Together but Apart? (Imelda Maher, Dublin)

European Energy and Climate policy: An assessment of progress (Michael Pollitt, Cambridge)

The Socially-Embedded Single Market (Deborah Mabbett, Birkbeck)

Discussants:

Dermot Hodson, Birkbeck

Iain Begg, LSE

11.45-1.00

Panel C: The Boundaries of the Single Market and Differentiated Market Membership

The Single Market in the Shadow of the Eurozone Crisis (Brigid Laffan, EUI)

Single Market beyond the EU: the EEA Experience (Ulf Sverdrup, NUPI, Oslo)

The European Single Market and External Trade and Investment Policy (Dirk de Bièvre, Antwerp)

Discussant:

Joanne Scott, UCL

Waltraud Schelkle, LSE

1.30-3.00

Lunch

Sidney Sussex College, Old Library

3.00-3.30

Challenges and Future Prospects (Renaud Dehousse, Sciences Po)

END